About Me

Recent Informatics graduate (S1) with a background in web and mobile application development, data analysis, machine learning, and IT technical support. I have hands-on experience building web-based systems through an internship and several projects, and I applied machine learning end to end, from text preprocessing and Artificial Neural Networks to hyperparameter optimization, in my sentiment analysis thesis. I also hold two Oracle certifications (including AI Foundations) and have leadership experience as Chair and Division Head.

Group project (5 members) | jatimeal.my.id

Backend Developer | Dec 2024 - Jan 2025

A web-based application introducing East Javanese cuisine, with ingredient filtering and weekly menu planning.

- Built the backend: ingredient filtering, weekly menu planning, and menu management.
- Handled application hosting and deployment.
- Collaborated with a Product Manager, Frontend Developer, UI/UX Designer, and Quality Assurance.

Tech stack: Laravel · MySQL

YouTube Comment Sentiment Analysis on DPR Protests

Undergraduate thesis

Researcher & Developer | Feb - Jul 2026

A sentiment analysis study of 3,563 YouTube comments using an Artificial Neural Network, delivered with a web-based system prototype.

- Collected data with the YouTube Data API and represented text with TF-IDF.
- Optimized hyperparameters with Bayesian Optimization and handled imbalanced data with SMOTETomek.
- Raised model accuracy from 84% to 86%.
- Built a web prototype with Python and Flask.

Tech stack: Python · Flask · TensorFlow/Keras · Scikit-learn

Jaringan Kasih

Group project

Mobile Developer | Dec 2024 - Jan 2025

A crowdfunding mobile app prototype.

- Donation campaign list (funds raised and target) and campaign detail page.
- Registration, login, and account settings using SharedPreferences.

Tech stack: Flutter · Dart
